Young, dynamic and innovative – Your start-up at the textiles trade fairs

Be part of the programme for the Techtextil and Texprocess trade fairs, from 21 to 24 June 2022

Techtextil, the leading international trade fair for technical textiles and nonwovens, and Texprocess, the leading international trade fair for the processing of textile and flexible materials, are among the top textile industry events. This year, both fairs will be held both physically (with trade fair stands) and digitally (online).

Why not take advantage of these leading fairs' all-inclusive stand offers for international start-ups? In our International Start-up Area you'll have the chance to present your young, innovative company professionally to a specialist, international audience. It's easy to do!
